Bio:
Dirk Müllmann studied law at the University of Osnabrück and completed his legal clerkship at the Higher Regional Court of Düsseldorf. He is working on his doctorate at Goethe University Frankfurt/Main. His research focuses on problems of data protection and IT security. He works as a legal consultant in the department of legal affairs of the Federal Commissioner for Data Protection and Freedom of Information (BfDI) in Bonn and as a research assistant at the Chair for Public Law, Information Law, Environmental Law and Administrative Science at Goethe University Frankfurt of Prof. Spiecker gen. Döhmann.

Bio:

Amos Treiber completed his PhD at the Cryptography and Privacy Engineering Group (ENCRYPTO) at Technical University of Darmstadt in 2022 within the Research Training Group Privacy and Trust for Mobile Users. His research focuses on analyzing and using cryptographic mechanisms for practically preserving privacy in various applications. In 2022, he was a visiting scholar at Brown University working on the cryptanalysis of encrypted search. Since 2023, he is a cryptography specialist at Rohde & Schwarz Cybersecurity GmbH.